August is often a month of change. Summer begins to wind down, routines start to shift, school begins again, and many of us are preparing for a new season. In the middle of those transitions, it is a comfort to remember that while life continually changes, God never does.

James 1:17 reminds us, "Whatever is good and perfect comes down to us from God our Father, who created all the lights in the heavens. He never changes or casts a shifting shadow". What a steady hope that is.

Our circumstances may feel uncertain, and our hearts can sometimes grow weary, but the Lord remains faithful, ever wise, and unchanging.

Because He is the same yesterday, today, and forever, we can trust Him fully in every season. He is present in the ordinary days, the busy days, and the uncertain days. He is kind to sustain us, patient with us, and faithful to lead us.

As we step into this August, may we rest in God’s unchanging character, draw near to Him in His Word, and walk forward with quiet confidence. Know that whatever August holds, the Lord will still be good, and His mercies will still be new every morning.

In Christ,
Pastor Phil

When two powerful earthquakes struck Venezuela's north-central coast at the end of June, lives changed in an instant. Hundreds of buildings were damaged or destroyed. Thousands of families were forced from their homes. Many spent nights sleeping outside because their homes were no longer safe or they feared more aftershocks. Churches, schools, and entire neighborhoods are now helping shelter those with nowhere else to go.

As we grieve alongside the people of Venezuela, we are also witnessing something remarkable. Long before the earthquakes, God was preparing His Church.

For years, Send Relief and its parent organization, the International Mission Board, have partnered with Venezuelan Baptist churches to strengthen communities through practical compassion and Gospel hope. Those partnerships meant that when disaster struck, local believers didn't have to wait for outside help to arrive. They were already there. Because of your generosity, resources and trained leaders were already in place. Today, Venezuelan churches are feeding families, providing medical care, and bringing hope to their neighbors in Jesus' name.

Thank you for helping the local church respond with compassion, courage, and the love of Jesus.
